Active Shooter Response Training

Presented by the Clayton Police Department: Lt. Mark Smith

Tuesday, June 4 from 4pm-6pm (.2 CEUs)

Clayton Police Department Courtroom
10 S. Brentwood Blvd, Clayton, MO 63105

What Will You Learn?

How do you respond in the case of an armed intruder in any setting? The Clayton Police Department will provide facts about past occurrences in the US and suggested reactions if you find yourself in an active shooter situation. Sign Language Interpreters find themselves in a variety of settings. Attend this workshop to get practical advice on how to be more aware and prepared in the event of an active shooter. Learn how to:

- Define an active shooter
- Analyze active shooter events, current trends, and early warning indicators
- Learn response options and strategies
- Understand the law enforcement response

Audience:

Hearing & Deaf Community interpreters of all levels (Basic, Advanced, Master) who find themselves in a variety of settings and need to know how to react in the case of an armed intruder
