Introduction to Legal Interpreting Inside and Outside of the Courtroom

Presenter: Michelle Doyle

NAD-RID – NIC, SC: L, Supreme Court of Ohio Certified Interpreter

Saturday, September 28, 2019 – 12:00-5:00pm (0.5 Ethics CEUs)

Thrive Co.

222 S. Meramec Avenue, Suite 202

Clayton, MO 63105

Objectives:

This workshop will introduce participants to the court systems, as well as other areas of legal interpreting outside of the court room. Participants will learn about these environments, understand the proceedings and language most commonly used within each setting, and how to navigate through them to provide the most effective interpretations. Consideration for effective interpretation of common frozen texts, including analysis of source language meaning and intent, will be a major focus, as well as in-depth discussion of interpreting scenarios that will bring to light some of the differences required of legal interpreters' ethical decision making framework as compared to other areas of interpreting.

Audience:

Hearing & Deaf Community of all levels (Interpreters: Basic, Advanced, Master, CDI; Students; Community Members)

Questions, Registration, & Cost:

- Interpreter Registration (0.5 Ethics CEUs): $50
- General Admission (No CEUs): $45
- Deaf Attendees (No CEUs): Free for the first 5 registrants
